Unpublished conference papers, works underway, zombie projects worth commemorating

Sarah Bauerle Danzman, Rashid Marcano-Rivera, and W. Kindred Winecoff.

Various papers from “The Political Economy of Business-Government Connections” project, submissions from 2023-2025).

W. Kindred Winecoff. “Structural Power and the Federal Reserve’s International Lending During the Global Financial Crisis.” Revise and resubmit, Business and Politics. (Did not resubmit, revising with added analysis to include the Covid-19 case.)

W. Kindred Winecoff. “Power and Prominence in the Global Monetary System: Where It Comes From, What It Means, and How It Is(n’t?) Changing.” Presented at a 2017 conference at the Centre for Rising Powers, University of Cambridge and the 2018 Annual Meeting of the Society for the Advancement of Socio-Economics, Kyoto, Japan. (Being rolled into another project.)

Samuel Brazys and W. Kindred Winecoff. “The Politics of Prominence and the Struggle for Position in the Network of Preferential Trade Agreements.” Presented at the 2016 Annual Meeting of the International Political Economy Society, Durham, NC. (We might revisit this one day.)

Damian Raess, Dora Sari, and W. Kindred Winecoff. “The Diffusion of Labor Provisions in PTAs: The Case of the Global South.” Presented at the 2017 Annual Meeting of the American Political Science Association, San Francisco, CA. (This is probably dead mea culpa, sorry folks!.)

Elizabeth Menninga and W. Kindred Winecoff. “Complex Interdependence as a Multiplex Network Phenomenon.” Presented at the 2018 Annual Meeting of the International Studies Association, San Francisco, CA; the 2018 Annual Meeting of Political Networks Conference, George Mason University, Arlington, VA; and the 2019 Annual Meeting of Network Science in Economics, Indiana University Bloomington. (Heather Ba was subsequently on-boarded. We’ll probably finish this one.)

Alexander Antony, Rashid Marcano-Rivera, Bilyana Petrova and W. Kindred Winecoff. “Mapping the Hidden Wealth of Nations: The Paradise Papers As a Covert Network.” Presented at the 2017 Annual Meeting of the Midwest Political Science Association, Chicago, IL.

(This is a cool project but the data are such a mess that I don't know if anything will ever come out of it.)

Public-facing writing

- Ore Koren and Kindred Winecoff. 2020. "Food Price Spikes and Social Unrest: The Dark Side of the Fed's Crisis-Fighting", Foreign Policy online, May 20. Winner of a 2020 "Albies" award for the "best writing in political economy". The world has certainly become more conflictual since then, and the links to food price inflation are clear.
